COURTS DECIDE
AGAINST DR. POWELL

The Mathai Heirs are Entitled to Proceeds From Sale of Farm—Supreme Court Reversed Bucks County Court—Action—Also Begun to Compel Payment to Mathai Kin and to Void Certain Property Transfers by Powell—Fraud Alleged.

A case of great interest to Bucks county people in the vicinity of Richboro and Bredysville and of Northampton, Warwick and Warminster townships, is now and has been for some time occupying the attention of Bucks county courts.

The lawyers say that freed from legal verbiage, the case is about as follows: Charles Mathai, an eccentric bachelor resident of Northampton township, becoming old in years and wishing to be relieved of all business cares, decided to his friend and physician, Dr. E. E. Powell, of Richboro, a fine farm, which he, Mathai owned on the Bristol road near Bredysville, on certain conditions, said to be somewhat as follows: The farm was to be sold to the physician was to pay Mathai until his death $400 yearly. This contract was made in December, 1906 and it was said one half was paid down and two annual payments of $400 each were made to Mathai, before death took place.

Dr. Powell having the deed to the farm, sold the property to Mrs. Emily Haldeman, who with her husband, Harry Haldeman, has since been in possession. Price about $800.

The heirs of Charles Mathai, a brother John B. Mathai, of Hatboro, and two sisters, Mrs. Sichel, of Newtown and Mrs. Isaac Vassaradale, of Illinois, all, chagrined at the fact that Charles Mathai's estate had gone to an outsider, brought suit in Bucks county courts to have the transaction between Charles Mathai and Dr. Powell set aside. Judge Staples, on the bench, decided in favor of Powell. The Mathai heirs carried the case to the Supreme Court and won. That court directed the lower court to reverse its decision.

In compliance with the Supreme court ruling Judge C. B. Staples sitting at Doylestown has handed down a final decree in accordance with Mathai vs. Elmer E. Powell. The decree in part is as follows:

"And now, April 12, 1912, this case coming on to the pleadings and proofs, and a decree having been entered dismissing complaints filed, which decree was reversed by an opinion of the Supreme Court filed on March 18, 1912, and of January 22, 1912, No. 12, the bill reinstated and the record remitted to this court, with directions to enter a decree in accordance with the views expressed in the said opinion, upon consideration thereof, and in accordance therewith, it is ordered, that the defendant, Elmer E. Powell, shall forthwith execute, deliver, and deliver to the complainants, or to such person as they may in writing designate, a complete and valid assignment of the mortgage in the amount of $6500 covering the premises, 3 farms, in the townships of Warwick and Warminster, county of Bucks and state of Pennsylvania.

The said mortgage was executed to the defendant by Emily Haldeman on the 19th day of March, 1908, and is recorded at Doylestown in the office for the recording of deeds in the county of Bucks in mortgage book No. 176, at p. 540.

"2. The defendant shall within 30 days from the date hereof pay to the complainants, or to such person as they may in writing designate,

(a) The sum of $1218.00, with interest thereon at 6 per cent. per annum from the 19th day of March, 1908, to the date of payment, $1218 being the amount received by the defendant, over and above the sum of $5000 from the sale of the premises above described.

(b) The amount of interest on the mortgage above recited received by the defendant from the 19th day of March, 1908, to the date of payment, with the interest upon the same at 6 per cent. per annum.

(c) The total amount of the sum received by the defendant from the above described property from the 27th day of December, 1906, to the 19th day of March, 1908, with interest on the same at 6 per cent. per annum.

"3. The defendant shall be allowed a credit by the complainants for:

(a) All payments made by him to Charles H. Mathai under the contract of December 27, 1906, and from the 27th day of December, 1906, to the date of the death of the said Charles H. Mathai, with interest thereon at 6 per cent. per annum.

(b) All expenditures for taxes, reasonable repairs and improvements made upon the property above described by the defendant, with interest thereon at 6 per cent. per annum from the time when the moneys were expended for the same by the defendant to date.

(c) Taxes paid the state of Pennsylvania by the defendant upon the ownership of the mortgage above described, with interest thereon at 6 per cent. per annum.

Carried Montgomery County by About 1500 Majority—Bosess Johnson and Grundy Defeated—Bean Had Big Majority Over Eastburn—Taft Delegates Counted in Bucks—Pennsylvania Will Send Over 60 Roosevelt Delegates to the National Convention.

The result of the primary election last Saturday was a Roosevelt sweep throughout Pennsylvania. Even in Philadelphia, several Roosevelt delegates were chosen. The Colonel will probably have 66 of the state's 76 delegates to the national convention. In Montgomery county Kratz and Foster, the Roosevelt candidates for national delegates, won over Johnson and Grundy, the recognized Taft candidates for national delegates, by about 1600.

All but one of the ten state delegates will be for the Roosevelt delegates-at-large. The exception is Gilbert H. Fox, of Norristown, who was elected, because the Roosevelt people only put up two candidates in the district, which three were to be chosen.

In the first district Hunnicutt, Rush and Field's, Roosevelt delegates, had over 200 majority. In the third district the three Roosevelt candidates won by over 200 majority.

The fourth district was carried by Young for Roosevelt by nearly 400 majority.

Oscar O. Bean had a majority for Congress of 4074 in Montgomery county and nearly 5800 in the district, the Montgomery vote being as follows:

The world was startled and appalled by the news flashed by wireless last Monday that the steamship Titanic had sunk far out at sea, carrying down hundreds of those on board. The news stated briefly that the great ship, the largest afloat had struck an iceberg, while going at full speed and had speedily gone to the bottom. Also that some of the passengers and crew had been saved by other vessels.

All through the week varying reports have been received, but the truth became known by the arrival 86 New York of the gasping boat, and of three survivors.

Then it was learned that there were 745 survivors on board, and that the sinking ship had carried down 1555 persons.

More than this number were picked up from 32 Titanic's boats and from pieces of wreckage to which they clung, but ten died of exposure before they could be transferred to the Carpathia, and were buried at sea, two on Monday and eight Wednesday.

Four bodies are part of the Carpathia's cargo. They are those of a woman, a petty officer of the Titanic boat, and of two seamen.

Of the 745 who reached, 210 were members of the crew, and 535 were passengers. Only four officers were saved.

The hardships of those who were rescued were extreme. Dozens of women were taken from the Carpathia

ASSESSORS ELECTED
LAST FALL ARE OUT

Former Office Holders Must Do the Work This Spring.

The County Commissioners are being besieged by those who thought themselves elected assessors of the various districts of the county and who have been ruled out by the Court, in the Shilling case, and the former assessors replaced in office, on the ground that the old official term of office was extended by the constitutional amendments.

The assessors want to know what recompense they will get for the work they have done in the spring assessment prior to the filing of the opinion of the Court. Some had been at work for several days and others had given less time to the office, but nevertheless made some sacrifice of time and labor, apparently, let alone some actual expense.

The Commissioners cannot give these men anything as all such work, in the application of the court's ruling, is void and valueless, in that it has no legal standing.

Incidentally, it may be mentioned that the men who were elected last fall, as assessors, and who are now ruled out, will have no standing what ever after 1912, as some appear to suppose. It was evident that the office they will have to go through the same course of nomination and election as they did last fall.

GAS KILLED SMALL GIRL.
Daughter of Joseph Duffield at Ambler Overcome.

Coroner Neville went to Ambler Tuesday morning to investigate the sudden death of the five-year-old child of Joseph Duffield, who was found dead in the kitchen of the residence of the family, on Tuesday.

The witness testified that Miss Rainer was a competent housewife and had cared for the horse she was driving for about two years. The horse, which ran away at the time of the accident, had always been quiet, so quiet that when he was driving it to the store delivery it was never necessary to tie it when it was left alone by the driver.

Evans claimed that his knee was so badly hurt in the accident that he was obliged to sell out his business, and do nothing for over a year. Also that his doctor bills were heavy and that his injury was permanent.

Among the witnesses heard were Dr. S. P. McIlhenny, of Ireland, Dr. J. B. Phillips, of Philadelphia, Dr. George H. White, Mrs. C. H. Yate, C. H. The case occupied Tuesday afternoon, all of the day, and the jury brought in a verdict Thursday afternoon, awarding Evans $1410.10 damages and placing the cost on the township. The suit and trial of the case has caused much discussion in Warminster and Ivyland townships, and taxpayers are much wrought up over the cost placed upon them by this verdict.

The township will appeal the case to the Supreme Court. The matter is regarded as of great moment to townships in general.

$1410 DAMAGES TO MAN HURT IN UPSET

Henry Evans, of Willow Grove, Secured Verdict in Bucks County Court—Wagon Upset in Wide, Deep Ditch—Warminster Township Must Pay Costs as Well—Many Witnesses Called.

A large number of witnesses were called to Doylestown, this week, to testify in the suit brought by Henry S. Evans against the township of Warminster to recover $10,000 damages for injuries he received in an accident he met with through his team falling into a deep ditch, one of the public roads of that township.

The case came to trial Tuesday afternoon before Judge Telford in the Indiana county, who is helping to expedite the business of the Bucks county courts.

Evans, now of Willow Grove, testified that on the night of March 13, 1910, about 8 o'clock, as he was driving from Wyomble to Ivyland where he had a store, the right hand side of his wagon sank into a ditch 2 1/2 or three feet deep as he got within about 600 feet of his home. He was accompanied by his wife, Fannie Wilkison and Miss Anna Rainer, now his wife, and Miss Rainer was sitting on the lap of himself and Mrs. Wilkison and driving the horse into the ditch, he testified, the wagon turned over onto its side and they were thrown out into the ditch which was about seven feet wide and 18 inches from the beaten track of the road.

The witness testified that Miss Rainer was a competent housewife and had cared for the horse she was driving for about two years. The horse, which ran away at the time of the accident, had always been quiet, so quiet that when he was driving it to the store delivery it was never necessary to tie it when it was left alone by the driver.

MUST TAKE HUMPS FROM ROADS.

An Act of Legislature Forbids Road Construction Except With Even Grade.

One of the road laws passed by the Legislature of 1911 which is very little known by the public regulates ever drains and culverts. Supervisors and road builders are realizing the importance of this act and if it is properly enforced road builders will be compelled to eliminate the detestable and dangerous "thank-you-ma'ams" from all roads. The State Highway Department will not give its consent to the building of any road containing the objectionable humps and township supervisors in nearly every section are giving their attention to the removal of the unnecessary hump. Even the turnpikes, which have so long turned a deaf ear to the teachings of modern road building, are beginning to realize that roads can be built without the humps and quite a number of them have been taken out on toll roads and others are to be removed as soon as possible.

Following is the text of the act, which is entitled "An Act regulating the construction and repair of highways over drains and culverts," approved the 15th day of June 1911.

Section 1. Be it enacted, etc., that hereafter, in the construction or repair of any highway, it shall be unlawful for the person or persons in charge of such construction or repair, to raise such highway, or permit the same to be raised or elevated, above the ordinary grade thereof, when a drain or culvert shall be constructed under such highway, or when such highway shall be constructed or repaired over such drain or culvert; Provided, however, that this act shall not be considered to apply in any manner, to interfere with the work of the State Highway Department in the construction or improvement of any State Highway or State-aid Highway, when a township or townships may be improving a plan and specifications of the State Highway Department.

Section 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

In planning to reopen the two summer camps for boys and girls conducted last summer near Point Pleasant, in Bucks county, the members of the Playground Association of Philadelphia have decided to extend the benefits of camp to even the poorest children by establishing additional camps near enough to the city to be reached without paying more than five cents carfare and providing an outing that will cost a child not more than two dollars a week.

"Clean Up the Bowels and Keep Them Clean"

There are many remedies to be had for constipation, but the difficulty is to procure one that acts without violence. A remedy that does not perform by force

 what should be accomplished by nature is not in Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets.
 After using them,
 Mr. N. A. Waddell,
 115 Washington
 St., Waco, Tex.,
 says:

"Almost all my troubles of late I have traced with constipation, and have tried many remedies, all of which failed to give me relief without giving much relief. I finally tried Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and found them excellent. Their action is pleasant and mild, and their chocolate taste makes them easy to take. I am more than glad to recommend them."

"Clean up the bowels and keep them clean," is the advice of all physicians, because they realize the danger resulting from habitual constipation. Do not delay too long before using the proper curative measures.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are a new remedy for this old complaint, and a great improvement over the cathartics you have been using in the past. They take like candy and work like a charm. A trial will convince you.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by druggists at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory after trial, return the box to your druggist and he will return your money.

Buy An IHC Spreader From Your Local Dealer

BEYOND doubt a good manure spreader is a necessity on every farm. Every live farmer has asked himself—"Which spreader is best?" "Why is it best?" and, "Where can I buy that spreader?"

The answer to these questions is—buy an IHC spreader from your local dealer.

The fertility of your soil depends as much on proper distribution as on the manure itself. Settle the manure spreader question once for all. See the local dealer and buy an

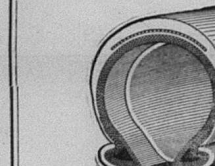

IHC Manure Spreader Kemp 20th Century Corn King or Cloverleaf

The IHC leaf dealer will show you good spreader construction and explain why it is good. When you buy your spreader from him, he will set it up for you, show you how to adjust it, start you off right, and be right there all the time to take care of any future needs.

Study fertility; learn why a good spreader is good. Buy an IHC spreader from your local dealer—that is the beginning of the most profitable farming.

BYBERRY

There will be a meeting of the Home and School League of Byberry on April 23rd at 2:30 p. m. in Byberry school. Mr. Burns, the District Superintendent and Prof. Mahoney will make addresses. All who are interested are invited to attend.

An illustrated lecture entitled "Philadelphia Old and New" will be delivered by Watson W. Dewees, of Haverford, Pa., in Byberry hall on Saturday evening, April 27th at 7:30 o'clock. All persons are cordially invited to attend. Admission free. The lecture is lent by the Civic Club, of Philadelphia.

BIBBRIGHT FRIENDS MAY NEED TRAINING

Byberry Friends Discuss Topics Bearing Upon the Society and Its Discipline—Many Take Part.

At the meeting house on First day afternoon, the 17th, the usual meeting of Byberry Friends' Association was held. The very high wind and rain kept the attendance down from being as large as it otherwise would have been.

The meeting was called by the President, William P. Bonner, and the 28th chapter of Matthew was read at the beginning by Edward Conly. In the absence of the secretary, Sarah W. Knight served. The minutes of the last meeting were read, and an encouraging report was made by Edwin K. Bonner of the prospect of buying Girty property for the Guild.

A report of the executive committee of General Conference of Friends' Associations was read together with the new constitution of that body. This led to discussion by Sarah W. Knight and Arabella Carter, Rachel Johnson, Edward Conly and William P. Bonner concerning the proposed bureau of association work. It was finally decided to pledge $5 to aid in this.

A most interesting part of the program was the "Queries" by Elizabeth Hallowell Bonner, who compared the present ones with the proposed changes, and felt the new were in some respects superior. The pleasant manner in which she presented the subject was not but arouse interest as it did. Her talk was followed by the reading of a poem "The Queries" written by Rachel Shaleros in 1882. James Bonner read also a paper dealing with the Queries by Ida R. B. Edger.

Arabella Carter spoke briefly on the subject also, as did E. P. Bonner and C. K. Bonner, he expressing his hope for further changes in the discipline will make clearer the procedure and writings necessary for those "making members." His own recent experience along that line doubtless led him to hope for easier ways for those to treat the matter of birthright membership also claimed some attention, certain proposed changes being mentioned in connection. Heterodox as it may seem, some of the most active members professed themselves as not agreed with this test of Friends, Rachel Johnson felt there should be a sort of probationary stage where those born in the Society might find if they desired to become full members. Arabella Carter took the same attitude, saying that the way is too easy, by being born a Friend, that if it cost more trouble we would value our membership more. She thought a broader outlook is needed. Friends needed to know more of other sects and what they stood for before we knew whether we were really Friends. Outsiders, because of the wide knowledge, are more sure what they want than we are. The matter of birthright membership was not discussed by the elders. These speakers seemed to have scored on the matter of knowledge and intuition were needed to know why they were Friends. Elizabeth E. Bonner, James Bonner, Jr. also spoke.

Sarah Warner Knight gave a talk on "Friends' Philanthropic Work" and gave a brief resume of the activities under various departmental committees. A paper on "Current Events" was given by Clara Wildman, telling of interesting events occurring the past month. James Bonner spoke of a recent visit to the United States Senate where he heard important subjects being discussed by our law-makers.

There was another paper prepared for this meeting but since the hour had reached 5:30, it was deemed best to leave it for another meeting. In deed the subjects of the afternoon had been so interesting and the discussions so full of good thoughts that it was easily one of the best meetings held, although no outside speaker was present.

The next meeting will be a sort of "week-end" with a social hour on 7th day evening, May 4th, and a Young People's Religious meeting, taking the place of the usual association meeting in the afternoon of the 5th. Announcement was made of a lecture on April 27th, at Byberry hall when Watson Dewees will give an illustrated lecture on "The Old and New Philadelphia." Admission free.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS BY COUNTRY WOMAN

Dear Spirit Readers:—

There seems little new in spring goods for dressmaking, which should be well under way by this time. There is as much talk now about white wash corduroy as there was earlier in the season of rattle. The latter is serviceable and easily laundered but the corduroy has yet to be tried. Quite a number of new styles are seen in the new figured weaves, which make very pretty afterthoughts. Old-fashioned muslins in pepper mint candy designs are being made up for summer wear and flowered tulle with cream coloring are much in style. The climate here seems unpromising enough at present but shortly the hot weather will drop down suddenly upon us, and we will be glad of the cool simple gowns we have been working upon so thoughtfully.

I have collected some very desirable chocolate recipes many of them tried and proven by experienced cooks and bakers as of above the average value.

CHOCOLATE CREME

Ten tablespoonfuls of sugar, 7 teaspoonfuls of grated chocolate, 1 quart of milk, 1 teaspoonful of cornstarch, 2 yolks of eggs, 1 teaspoonful of vanilla extract, some whipped cream. Put the sugar, cornstarch and chocolate into a saucepan, add the yolks of eggs, vanilla and milk. Stir over the fire until boiling. Remove from the fire and beat until creamy. Divide into frappe glasses, and place on ice until ready to serve. Serve with whipped and sweetened cream. This quantity will serve eight persons.

CHOCOLATE FUDGE

Two squares of chocolate, 1/4 cupful of butter, 1/4 cupful of molasses, 1/2 cupful of cream, 1 cupful of white sugar, 1 cupful of brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoonful of vanilla extract. Melt the chocolate in a saucepan, add the sugars, butter in a saucepan, add the sugars, molasses and cream mixed together. Bring to boiling point, and continue to boil for two minutes and a half, stirring rapidly; then add the chocolate, grated fine; boil for five minutes, stirring continually; remove from the fire and add the vanilla. Beat until it thickens, then pour into a buttered pan. Chopped nuts may be added if liked.

CHOCOLATE NUT CAKE

Two tablespoonfuls of milk, 1 tablespoonful of melted chocolate, 3 eggs, 1/4 cupful of sugar, 1/4 cupful of flour, 2 teaspoonfuls of baking powder, 1/2 cupful of butter, 1/2 cupful of water, 1 teaspoonful of vanilla extract, nut filling. Sift the flour and baking powder together twice. Add the extract to the water. Beat the yolks of the eggs until light, then add the milk to them. Cream the butter and sugar, add the yolks of the eggs, the melted chocolate, the water and flour. Beat the batter until smooth, then fold in the chocolate. To make the filling: Dissolve two cupfuls of sugar in two-thirds of a cupful of boiling water and allow to boil, without stirring, until it will spin a thread. Pour upon the whites of two well-beaten eggs, stirring constantly. Mix in one cupful of chopped nut meats, and when it begins to thicken spread between the layers of cake.

Chocolate Marshmallow Cake

One square of chocolate, some marshmallows, 1/4 cupful of butter, 1 egg, 1 cupful of flour, 1/2 cupful of sugar, 2 1/2 cupfuls of milk, 1 teaspoonful of baking powder, 1/2 teaspoonful of vanilla extract. Cream the butter and sugar together, then add the egg well beaten, the milk, flour, baking powder, vanilla and melted chocolate. Pour into a buttered round cake-pan and bake in a moderate oven for half an hour. After the cake has been out of the oven for ten minutes split it and spread the lower part with a few marshmallows cut in small pieces. Lay on the upper part and set the cake in the oven until the marshmallows are melted. Sprinkle powdered sugar over the top.

Chocolate Cream Custard

Two ounces of grated chocolate, 1 quart of hot milk, 1/4 cupful of cold milk, 1/4 cupful of sugar, 1/2 cupful of vanilla extract. Put the quart of milk into a saucepan and bring it to the boiling point. Mix the chocolate and cold milk together, add to them some of the boiling milk, then pour back into the saucepan, stirring all the time. When almost boiling add the yolks of the eggs beaten with the sugar and vanilla extract. Remove from the fire and add the beaten whites of three of the eggs. Divide into custard-cups. Beat up the remaining whites of eggs, then gradually beat into them three tablespoonfuls of sugar. Drop a spoonful of this meringue on to the top of each of the custards and set away to cool.

Chocolate Souffle

Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add two tablespoonfuls of flour, stir until well blended; then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, three-fourths cupful of milk, and bring to the boiling-point. Melt one and one-half squares of unsweetened chocolate in a small saucepan placed over hot water, and add one-third cupful of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of boiling water, and stir until smooth. Combine mixture and yolks of three eggs, beaten until thick and lemon-colored. Cool slightly, and cut and fold in whites of three eggs, beaten until stiff and dry, and one-half teaspoonful of vanilla. Turn into a buttered dish and bake twenty-five minutes. Serve with Cream Sauce made as follows: To three-fourths cupful of heavy cream add one-fourth cupful of milk, and beat until stiff, using a Dover egg-beater; then add one-third cupful of powdered sugar, one-half teaspoonful of vanilla, and a few grains of salt.

A DELICIOUS CAKE

Vienna Cake—Beat the yolks of four eggs until thick and lemon-colored, and add gradually, while beating constantly, one cupful of fine granulated sugar. Then add three tablespoonfuls of cold water. Put one and one-half tablespoonfuls of corn-starch in a cup, and fill the cup with pastry-flour (sifted once). Mix with one and one-fourth teaspoonfuls of baking powder and 1/4 teaspoonful of salt. Combine mixture and add one teaspoonful of lemon-essence and the whites of six eggs, beaten until stiff. Turn into a cake pan and flour angel-cake pan, and bake in moderate oven, from thirty-five to forty minutes. Remove from pan, and cut crosswise so as to make four layers of equal thickness. Put between the top and bottom layers chocolate mocha filling. In the center and over places, and holes of cake put vanilla mocha filling, and sprinkle the surface with nut brittle.

Mocha Filling—Beat one cupful of milk in double boiler. Mix one-third cupful each of sugar and flour, and afterwards 1/4 cupful of sugar, and gradually to mixture, and cook in double boiler fifteen minutes, stirring constantly until mixture thickens, and over places, and holes of cake put vanilla mocha filling, and sprinkle the surface with nut brittle.

Nut Brittle—Blend and chop Jordan almonds; there should be one-third cupful of almonds in a small one-ounce pan, with one-third cupful of the granulated sugar, and cook over a hot fire, stirring constantly until sugar is well caramelized. Turn into a slightly buttered pan, cool, and roll quite fine.

An Original Dish of Baked Yellow Tomatoes

Use the tiny egg-shaped yellow tomatoes for this dish. After cutting off the caps, or stem ends, of the tomatoes (so the juice can run out), stand them close together on end in an earthenware dish. Dot them with lumps of butter, a generous sprinkling of granulated sugar, salt and pepper to taste. Then dredge flour over to form a thick crust, and bake in the oven until soft and juicy.

Avocado and Tomato Salad

Peel and cut up the alligator pears into small pieces, the cucumber sliced tomatoes and cucumbers; place on a bed of watercress or lettuce. Serve with mayonnaise dressing, or a French dressing made of vinegar, oil, salt and paprika. Another method is to trim and scoop out ripe tomatoes, stuff them with alligator pear which has been forced through a vegetable press. Garnish with rings of hard-boiled eggs, and a little onion, or mayonnaise. A little onion if liked.

Corn Souffle

Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add two tablespoonfuls of flour, and stir until well blended; then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, one cupful of scalded milk. Bring to the boiling-point, and add one cupful of canned corn, and season with salt and pepper; then add the yolks of two eggs beaten until thick and dry. Turn into a buttered baking-dish, and bake in a moderate oven until firm. Serve at once with crisp buttered toast.

Banana Whip

Four ripe bananas, 1 pint whipping cream, 2 tablespoonfuls pulverized sugar, Mash the bananas through fine sieve; add the sugar. Whip the cream until it is stiff; then add the bananas; mix lightly with a fork. Put in cold place until ready to serve. Garnish with 2 maraschino or candied cherries, cut in half. You can serve in large bowl or in ice cream glasses.

A Sweet Toast

A sweet toast is made by cutting small squares or oblongs of toast, dip into a mixture made from a pint of hot milk, into which has been stirred the grated rind of a lemon and a dash of brandy. Dip the soaked toast in beaten egg and fry quickly in hot butter, or bake on a well-greased griddle. Sprinkle with powdered sugar and serve immediately.

Lobster Salad

Boil one or two medium-sized lobsters and pick to pieces when cold. To make the dressing for them beat the yolks of two eggs, add a dash of lemon juice, a pinch of red pepper, half a tablespoonful of powdered sugar, and a dash of vinegar. Add gradually one cupful of olive oil. When quite thick whip in the strained juice of one lemon. Beat five minutes and add two tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Just before serving add to the dressing a quarter of a cupful of sweet cream whipped to a froth; stir all well together, then into the lobster. Line a salad bowl with lettuce, and lay the lobster on it, and cover with a little more whipped cream. Garnish with a little lemon juice and four tablespoonfuls of vinegar may be used.

YOUNG WIFE SAVED FROM HOSPITAL

Tells How Sick She Was And What Saved Her From An Operation.

Upper Sandusky, Ohio.—"Three years ago I was married and went to house-keeping. I was not feeling well and could hardly drag myself along. I had such tired feelings, my back ached, my sides ached, I had bladder trouble awfully bad, and I could not eat or sleep. I had headaches, too, and became almost a nervous wreck. My doctor told me to go to a hospital. I did not like that idea very well, so, when I saw your advertisement in a paper, I wrote to you for advice, and have done so ever since. I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills, and now I have my health. 'If sick and ailing women would only know enough to take your medicine, they would be well.'—Mrs. BENJ. H. STANGREY, Route 6, Box 18, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

If you have mysterious pains, irregularity, backache, extreme nervousness, inflammation, ulceration or displacement, don't wait too long, but try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and such unquestionable testimony as the above proves the value of this famous remedy and should give every one confidence.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS.

TIMELY TOPICS OF PLANTS AND PESTS DISCUSSED WEEKLY.

By H. A. Surface, State Zoologist of Pa.

BURN RUBBISH—KILL BUGS.

Dr. H. A. Surface, Pennsylvania State Zoologist at Harrisburg, calls attention to the fact that in the very early spring is the time to burn rubbish, leaves, weeds and grain where hibernating insects hibernate, and thus reduce the number of pests of this kind.

He says that many of our most injurious insects, such as the Chinch Bug, Stinking Smut Bug and the Asparagus Beetle hibernate in the adult or mature stage, successfully withstanding all the rigors of our severe winters, and are yet to be found in the rubbish, such as leaves, straw, and fragments of vegetation, where they pass the winter.

In gardens the asparagus beetles which are increasing in numbers and destructiveness in this State are to be found, especially in the old dead and hollow canes of raspberry plants and in the cavities of dead weeds and especially of the old asparagus stalks. The dead raspberry bushes should be trimmed out and the old remnants of plants of all kinds should be raked together and burned. This not only results in killing the hibernating insects, but also destroys many disease germs which may also be passing the winter there.

It is important for this trimming to be done early. If it should be neglected until after the air becomes warm, the insects become active and commence to seek their food plants instead of remaining in their winter quarters, where they are easily destroyed. For this reason this advice is especially timely and important.

In these few portions of the State where the Chinch Bug occurred last year, it is particularly important that grass fields be burned over promptly, road sides be burned where there is material that harbors these pests. Rubbish along fences be plowed back from the fences and burned or plowed under, and otherwise a general cleanup by he done as there is no better means of destroying this very serious pest.

FOR CLOTHES MOTHS.

A valued correspondent writes to Prof. H. A. Surface, Harrisburg, Pa., asking how to get rid of clothes moths which are destroying a couch cover. The reply gives information that may be used to others troubled with this destructive pest. It is as follows:

"You can destroy the clothes moths by saturating with benzine or gasoline the fabric which they infest. If you will dissolve a very slight proportion of corrosive sublimate in alcohol, using not more than one part by weight to one hundred parts of water, and pour or sprinkle this over a cloth it will poison it and render it immune to them."

"Where clothes moths infest articles that can be spread and shaken, it is a good plan to take them into the sunshine in an open yard, and whip them thoroughly with strong whips and air them well. If one can place small articles in an oven and watch the temperature that it does not get higher than something like one hundred and fifty to one hundred and sixty degrees, he can kill this pest by heat. Where the articles are small enough to put them into a closed vessel a very excellent method is to put them into something that can be closed tightly and pour over them or set upon them a shallow pan containing the liquid known as carbon bisulfide and let it stand and fumigate three or four hours or more. At least one pound of this should be used for each one hundred cubic feet of space, and more will do no harm. Keep fire away from it, as it is explosive, the same as the fumes of benzine or gasoline."

"A barrel will do very well for this purpose, fastening over the top of it two or more sheets of oil cloth, holding it in place by a hoop placed outside. As a last resort for household pests, we can fall back upon fumigation with hydrocyanic acid gas, which is certain to be effective if properly done, but which is both expensive and somewhat dangerous by careless persons. Follow directions for this method of fumigation which are sent free from the office of the Economic Zoologist, at Harrisburg, when requested."

FARMERS LOSE $1,500 IN 6 YEARS

Richard Graham and Axel H. Carlson, who in 1906 established a dairy farm in Montgomery township, have failed and in the settlement of their affairs they need the assistance of the Court. —Mr. Graham petitioned the Court for a bill in equity, restraining Carlson from selling any portion of their farm, asking for a dissolution of partnership and asking for the appointment of a receiver.

In the petition it is set forth that the two men on June 25, 1906 purchased the farm for $2500, each putting into the partnership $650 and giving a mortgage for the remainder. Carlson was to operate the farm and was to receive $35 a month for this work, while Graham was to dispense of the products. The business became bad and it was necessary to give another joint mortgage. At the present time Graham says that the total indebtedness of the farm is $11,600. There is no money on hand with which to purchase feed for the cattle and the farm is in such circumstances that they cannot continue business.

Aside from asking for the appointment of a receiver, Graham desires the Court to restrain his partner from disposing of any part of the dairy farm. The Court granted a rule making the case returnable on April 14.

PLAN TO TEACH FARMING

Public Schools May Have an Agricultural Course.

The study of agriculture may be inaugurated in the public schools of the State, especially in rural high schools, during the coming winter as a result of an investigation into the practicability of installing it now being made by the Department of Public Instruction. This investigation into conditions and facilities, as well as into the needs of such education, has been in progress for several months under the direction of Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and he plans to take up the matter within a short time.

Under the school code Dr. Schaeffer was empowered to appoint experts in industrial and agricultural education and drawing, the appointment of the agricultural branch being given to Professor I. H. Dennis, of State College. The plans are to have a survey made of the State and to determine the needs of various localities and the financial resources of districts where such education is found to be advisable. Professor Dennis has been visiting many counties, having covered practically all of the agricultural counties, and the results of his investigations are to be taken up this spring.

Supplying of this branch of education, which has been urged by various organizations for several years, is largely one of finances as is the case in the matter of industrial education. The State officials hesitate to install the courses unless assured of the ability of the districts to employ first class teachers, and with this in view the subject is to be very carefully gone into.

Many requests for both industrial and agricultural courses have been received and committees of the State Grange will confer with Dr. Schaeffer later in the month.

The State Board of Education has already received a number of requests for the plans of model school houses and information as to the best methods for sanitation in rural district school properties and for information as to the uniform system of accounts which the Board has recommended.

FANCY POULTRY.

At a meeting held in Ambler, April 11th, the Montgomery County Fanciers Association was organized for the purpose of promoting interest in poultry culture in Montgomery county. The following officers were elected: President, William T. Patterson, Ambler; Vice president, John H. Robinson, Three Tuns; secretary, James R. Gill, Ambler; treasurer, Frank Flavel, Ambler.

At a meeting to be held at Hotel Wyndham, Ambler, Tuesday evening, April 23rd, the association will meet and will be adopted and an executive committee chosen. All Montgomery county fanciers are urged to join and to be present.

The Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company is making extensive improvements on the Doylestown branch. Ninety pound rails are being laid and an automatic block system is being installed.

OGONTZ AND ASHBOURNE.

MAN WENT CRAZY.

C. J. Larsen, who gave his home as St. Paul, Minn., was arrested by Officer Hamilton at Jenkintown station at 4.30 a. m. on Monday morning. He came running into the office crying that some one was trying to kill him. The officer saw that something was wrong and started to take Larsen to the police station, which finally was done, after much hard work as the man was very much out of his mind. A Union card in his possession showed that he belonged to the stereotypers' union, and in a few years old. The members of the union were notified to come and look after him.

Mrs. Davis L. Lewis of Ogontz, will entertain a bridge on Tuesday afternoon next.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Ervin are expected home from their trip to California on Saturday.

A valuable bull dog owned by John Carrigan, of Rock Lane, was struck by an automobile on Sunday and killed.

Charles Harvey severed his connection with Andrew Webb and moved to Jenkintown, where he will conduct the garage business.

T. J. Ryan is now occupying his country home here. He has a new automobile. He is building a new amusement park at Point Breeze.

James Bustard, manager for T. J. Ryan, has 150 young chickens and has one hundred and eighty eggs in his incubator in process of hatching.

Miss Mary Towsey and Mrs. Annie Rogers, of Jenkintown, Mr. and Mrs. McCarty, of Philadelphia, were recent guests of James Bustard and wife.

James Bustard, who has charge of T. J. Ryan's greenhouses, has an Easter lily that has three shoots from one bulb, and has sixty-two blooms on it.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis L. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert K. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Feltz and the performance of Aida at the Philadelphia Opera House, Friday night.

On account of the "Titanic" disaster the amateur presentation of the plays "The Return of Letty" and "The Sleeping Car," which was to have been given Friday and Saturday evening at this week at the Jay Cook Memorial hall has been postponed to May 24 and 25.

About 8.15 on Tuesday evening, the Cheltenham police were notified of a man lying in the gutter along the York road at Stratford Avenue.

Brown, who investigated the case, found the man who afterward became known as James Huston, a gardener in the employ of Thomas Ryan, of Ogontz. He seemed to be dazed and could give no account of how he got there.

Charles Harvey, of Jenkintown, formerly of Ogontz, was called to make a repair on an automobile on Ogontz hill. He came in a large touring car and left it stand near the side of the car track where it was struck by one of the large trolley cars and badly damaged. The top, fender and body were badly broken. Several passenger trolleys had passed it while it was standing at its place before it was struck by the larger car. The accident was on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Huffnagle died on Sunday at her home on Ashbourne road, of illness incident to old age. She is survived by her husband, who has been in the employ of William E. Dobbins and the Dobbins estate that they have resided for so long. There are also five children, three sons and two daughters, all married. One daughter and husband, Frank Cash, have been living with their parents and looking after them for the past few years.

Mrs. G. Blum, Mrs. R. Blum and Mrs. William Herch left Friday for Chicago, to attend the funeral of their youngest sister, Adelaide, wife of David L. Frank. Her husband had been in her usual health until Thursday, when she was suddenly stricken with heart failure. She was 28 years old and her untimely death is deeply regretted by all who knew her, as well as by the many friends and neighbors of the Mesdames Blum and Herch. Mrs. Frank was born in Ogontz and married from the homestead there six years ago.

The latest news from the scene of the sinking of the Titanic shows the loss of George D. Widener and his son, Harry Elkins Widener. The absence of their names among those who were rescued as well as the names of Edward Keeling, valet for Mr. Widener, makes the loss of three from this community and brings home this great disaster to our very selves.

George D. Widener was well-known, loved and respected in this community. He has served as president of the board of township commissioners since Cheltenham township entered the realm of free-class townships. No service for his township or his fellow citizens was too much trouble for him; his interest in the welfare of the community was manifest constantly and he always attended the meetings of the board when it was possible, giving up many important engagements to be on hand. His generosity to the poor and needy of this community was widespread, always working with the idea of keeping his name from being known. Coal and provisions were sent to many who never knew that Mr. Widener was the donor.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to P. A. B. Widener, father, to Mrs. George D. Widener, wife, and to Miss Edith Widener and the entire family. Sorrow is also felt for Harry Elkins Widener, who was a young man, just beginning the best years of his life and had so much to live for, also for Keeling, the faithful valet.

Mrs. George D. Widener and Emily Gelter, Mrs. Widener's maid, were saved.

The Wideners had not been away on an extended trip but had just gone abroad for a short trip for their health and to prepare for the coming wedding, which was to take place in their family shortly.

POLICE NEWS.

FRIGHTENED GIRLS.

Henry Meehan, a 19-year-old boy of Weldon, was brought before Justice Comly at the Cheltenham police station on Monday, charged with malicious mischief and cruelty to animals. He was arrested by Officer Call on a warrant.

At the hearing it was shown that Miss Lillian Cramer and three young lady companions, all of Jenkintown, were out driving on Sunday afternoon, when they surprised Meehan, who is employed as a hack driver at Glenside station, reached out with his hands to straddle the horse driven by Miss Cramer, frightening the animal, but did not cause a runaway. At the hearing before Justice Haines he was fined $14.50 by Justice Comly and given a lecture.

Several vagrants were picked up about the township and held over until the station house.

Earl Powell, of LaMott, was arrested by Sergeant Ganley on a warrant sworn out in Philadelphia, charging Powell with larceny of a bicycle.

A letter was received from the Reading Railway calling attention to the condition of the Fitzwater road at its crossing west of Jenkintown. This road was badly washed during the recent rains. Already much work has been done on it.

The solicitor reported progress on the matter of laying sidewalks along the road from Noble to a point beyond Abington village.

Messrs. Mahoney and Albrecht reported progress in the matter of righting the roads on the Wanamaker-Bader tract at Noble.

Mr. Bennhoff introduced Ordinance No. 62 for the purpose of organizing the volunteer fire companies in the township and placing them under township government and also has the advantages of making certain township appropriations.

An Ordinance was passed on first reading for the borrowing of $164,000 for the purpose of borrowing for the recent loan election. There will also be a special meeting on April 23rd for the final passage of this ordinance. Solicitor Ambley reported having filed his statement before the court at Norristown in regard to the loan.

William Messer is having his house moved to the new site.

MONEY AND HUSBAND GONE

Cash From Sale of Property and Head of House Disappear.

With several hundred dollars in cash which he secured from the bank on an order from his wife, John J. Calhoun, of 124 Swartley street, North Wales, Pa., has disappeared and it is supposed has gone to Ireland. Calhoun was a widower with a family of six children, when he was married, a few weeks ago, to Mrs. Edith Parsons Harold. His wife recently sold a property in Wynded, and last week gave the check to her husband to deposit in the bank, retaining a portion of the proceeds which she kept in the house.

Several of Calhoun's children are able to take care of themselves, and the young wife had been providing for the other children before her father's recent marriage. He had been employed on the Beaumont place until recently as farmer. Since his marriage to Mrs. Harold, whose husband was granted a divorce last fall, on the grounds of desertion, life has evidently not been very rosy for the couple and the climax was reached on Monday of last week, when Constable George V. Moss leveled on the household goods for unpaid rent. It was then that Mrs. Calhoun told the officer of her husband's disappearance and the loss of the money.

A new pipe organ has recently been installed in the Lansdale Lutheran church at a cost of about $2500. The money was raised by the Dorcas Society.

Edwin Stapler fractured two of his ribs and was otherwise injured by a fall at his farm near Newtown, Bucks county.

$145 was the net proceeds of the chicken supper given by the ladies of the Abington fire company in the basement of the Presbyterian church last week.

Charles Barrett and wife had their wooden wedding anniversary on Wednesday night. Among the "valuable" presents was a pick handle and some clothes pins.
